Janesville Conservation Club Promotes Gun Safety Programs

Throughout the year the Janesville Conservation Club hosts Hunter Safety programs for classes up to 40 students. Highly accredited and trained instructors teach the basic fundamentals of gun and hunting safety.

Watch the Janesville Conservation web-site, the local newspaper and the DNR web-site for information on up-coming classes. This program has been very successful and space is limited.

Listed below are some of the benefits of good firearm safety training.

- Firearm-related fatalities in the U.S. have been decreasing consistently since record keeping began in 1903 and dramatically in the last 10 years
- Accidental firearm-related fatalities are substantially lower compared to the number of Accidental deaths caused by other injury types
- Hunting is one of the safest forms of recreation in the United States.

The Janesville Conservation Club is a member of the National Rifle Association (NRA) and the National Sports Shooting Foundation (NSSF) and supports many of their programs to keep shooting ranges open and allow for the right to bear arms.

Note: Many of the Fall Hunter Safety Classes we have had to turn away as many as 100 who have come to register. Spring classes are traditionally smaller and easier to get into. These classes are generally scheduled for February and March so watch the club web site or the DNR web site for scheduled classes at the Janesville Conservation Club in the Spring of 2012.
